

Conflict Minerals Policy Statement

Dear Customer,

TCI, Italian Company leader in the production of electronic components for lighting, is neither a US American company nor a listed company and therefore not per se subject to the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act (DFA) Section 1502.

In accordance with its corporate policy regarding environmental aspects and human rights violation, TCI does not buy minerals (such as gold, tungsten, tin and tantalum) directly from the Democratic Republic of Congo (RDC) or from neighboring countries.

TCI had to respond to this global challenge and fully understands the importance of this question, encouraging all of our suppliers to likewise support these efforts and make all possible information on the origin of their raw materials of components. Moreover, TCI wants to steer its supply chain towards using only smelters that have qualified as "conformant" or Smelter" listed "active "Smelters & Refiners List". as on the are an

In order to be able to provide customers with the best possible support we will continue to monitor this topic carefully.

We hope this answers your question to your satisfaction.
